NON-PROFESSIONAL SUPERVISOR’S STATEMENT OF RESPONSIBILITY

In order for supervised access to be safe and successful in enhancing the child’s relationship with the visiting parent, the supervisor has to be fully informed of all the issues that led to the required supervision.

Agreements

1. The Supervisor, _____(hereinafter referred to as “Supervisor”) agrees to serve as Supervisor for the access between _____(hereinafter referred to as “Child(ren)”) and _____(hereinafter referred to as the “Visiting Parent”).
2. The Supervisor understands that the Supervisor is approved to supervise and monitor the Visiting Parent’s contact with the Child(ren) until further order of the court.
3. The Supervisor has been informed of the concerns that have led to supervision. The Supervisor understands the negative impact these acts or omissions have or could have on the Child(ren). The Supervisor understands the court is depending on the Supervisor to ensure that the Supervisor is creating a safe environment for the access between the Child(ren) and the Visiting Parent.
4. The Supervisor understands that agreeing to supervise carries with it certain responsibilities and risks.
5. The Supervisor understands that failure to report any rule violations as listed below will result in the termination as supervisor.
6. The Supervisor has been fully informed of the expectations for supervision of visits between the Child(ren) and the Visiting Parent and the Supervisor shall ensure that the Visiting Parent strictly follows the rules outlined below.
7. The Supervisor understands that the Visiting Parent has been informed of these rules and the expectation that the rules be consistently followed.

Rules for the visits between the Child(ren) and the Visiting Parent:

- There shall be no whispering, writing notes, or note-passing between the Child(ren) and the Visiting Parent during a visit.
- Secrets between the Child(ren) and the Visiting Parent are not permitted.
- Neither the Supervisor nor the Visiting Parent shall discuss:
 - the current court proceedings
 - custody, access schedule, child support or living arrangements other than plans for the next scheduled visit
 - the other parent or persons where the child resides
 - activities, routines, or other events in the home where the child resides
 - anything about either parent related to custody or access.

--The Supervisor shall not allow the Child(ren) and the Visiting Parent to be alone together, outside of the presence of the Supervisor, and shall remain within sight and hearing of the child and the Visiting Parent at all times.

--There shall be no corporal punishment or other physical force used during the visit.

--There shall be no consumption of alcohol 12 hours prior or during the visit.

--The Visiting Parent shall not bring or otherwise direct any other person to be present at the visit unless authorized by the Court or set forth below.

Other Rules:

Please check all that apply:

- The Supervisor shall complete a brief summary of each visit in this case including information about who was present at the visit, what activities occurred and any significant events that may have happened.
- The Supervisor understands that the Supervisor has a responsibility to report any violations of the Rules, 'accidental' or otherwise, by the Visiting Parent.
- The Supervisor has the right to cease supervision and shall notify the Visiting Parent and the below-listed persons or entities of said decision.
- The Supervisor shall not allow physical contact between the Visiting Parent and the child.
- The Supervisor shall not allow improper physical contact between the Visiting Parent and the child and shall not allow normally acceptable contact between the child and the Visiting Parent unless initiated by the child.
- The Supervisor shall forward reports or notices to the following persons or entities via email or regular mail (circle one) within 72 hours of the visit:
